

The OEA helps Ontario employers with WSIB issues and unlawful reprisals under provincial occupational health and safety laws.

How the OEA can help you

Experienced professionals who can help with WSIB:

- claims management
- return to work and re-employment
 - hearings and appeals
 - reporting an accident
- answer questions about premiums
 - independent operator issues
 - negotiation and mediation

Our services are confidential. You will not be charged a fee because the OEA is funded through the premiums and administrative fees paid to the WSIB.

For assistance with WSIB matters or unlawful reprisal matters, contact the OEA.
